

SciAn Services to Exhibit at Bio 2009, within the Ontario Government Pavilion.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Toronto, Ontario, Canada, April 30, 2009 – SciAn Services, Inc., a Canadian Biotech CRO is pleased to confirm its attendance at Bio 2009 in Atlanta. This is the fourth consecutive year SciAn Services has been invited by the International Trade Branch, Ministry of Economic Trade and Development, to exhibit within the Ontario government's pavilion.

“It is an honor to be invited back for a fourth year”, says Dr. Miklos Schulz, President and CEO. SciAn is a strong supporter of the Ontario government's initiative to draw attention to the province's Biotech industry. “We're grateful that SciAn's 23 years contribution to the Ontario health sciences industry is being recognized as well as our commitment to service and support in clinical development”, says Dr. Schulz.

SciAn Services hopes to meet with Biotech companies at the Bio 2009 International Convention in Atlanta, to talk about how we can support their clinical development programs with our industry-leading innovative study design methods. We're easy to find, right under the large "Ontario" banner, by the Tim Horton's coffee shop.
